FOOD INSPIRED BY SYDNEY

The Australian cuisine in the cities has grown up. Especially in Sydney, many new types of restaurants can be found. Like Australia itself today, the kitchen is multicultural. Above all, Asian and South American ingredients, products and cooking styles are combined with old world recipes.

The so-called «fusion kitchen» offers many interesting culinary adventures. These combinations – seen and experienced in Sydney – have also inspired us. Let yourself be abducted to Downunder, enjoy a few hours in another world and relax.
